

The Clean Energy Plan Benefits Wisconsin

Funding from President Biden's clean energy plan is helping Wisconsin minimize the impacts of climate change and prepare for a clean energy future. As of June 2024, Wisconsin has received over $7 billion in funding from the clean energy plan – that's money going to communities all across the state to replace toxic lead pipes, promote climate resiliency, reduce pollution, and advance climate-smart agriculture.

CLEAN ENERGY INVESTMENTS:

- The clean energy plan is projected to bring over \$4 billion of new investment in clean energy generation and storage to Wisconsin by 2030. New clean energy projects since the passage of the Inflation Reduction Act have already spurred over \$940 million in investment and helped create 1,962 new clean energy jobs in the Badger State.

ENERGY EFFICIENCY:

- Wisconsin received over $149 million for consumer home energy rebate programs, which will help low-income households save an average of 31% on home energy bills.
- Thanks to tax credits covering 30% of the costs of installing solar panels, battery storage systems, and other home upgrades, an estimated 90,000 Wisconsin households are set to install rooftop solar panels – reducing energy costs and pollution.
- The DOE's Tribal Home Electrification and Appliance Rebates Program awarded 11 tribes in Wisconsin over $6 million for energy efficiency and electrification home upgrades.

CLEANER AIR:

- Wisconsin received $3 million, the Milwaukee-Waukesha Metro Area received an additional $1 million, and four tribal governments also received funding from the EPA's Climate Pollution Reduction Grants program.
- Four projects in Wisconsin received over $45 million from the DOT's Low-and No-Emission Vehicle Program.
- 38 Wisconsin school districts received over $35 million from the EPA's Clean School Bus Rebate Program to purchase low- and zero-emission school buses. In addition, two Wisconsin school districts received over $81 million in funding through the first Clean School Bus Program Grants Competition.

CLEANER WATER:

- The Badger State received nearly $139 million in funding to upgrade its drinking water infrastructure. The EPA has also partnered with ten Wisconsin communities as part of the Lead Service Line Replacement Accelerators program.

ELECTRIC VEHICLES:

- As part of the DOT's National Electric Vehicle Infrastructure (NEVI) program, Wisconsin will receive $78.6 million over five years to deploy EV charging infrastructure.

SUSTAINABLE AND RESILIENT INFRASTRUCTURE:

- The DOT awarded $2 million to one project in Wisconsin through the Consolidated Rail Infrastructure and Safety Improvements Grant.
- Nine projects in Wisconsin received over $92 million from the DOT's Rebuilding American Infrastructure with Sustainability and Equity (RAISE) program.
- The DOT awarded $88 million to a Wisconsin project through the Nationally Significant Multimodal Freight & Highway Projects Program (INFRA).

RESILIENCY, CONSERVATION, AND EQUITY:

- Two projects in Wisconsin received a total of $13.5 million from the USDA's Urban and Community Forestry Program to increase access to trees and green spaces.
- The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers awarded $1.7 million to the Big Suamico River for dredging.
- Three tribal governments in Wisconsin received a total of over $3.9 million from the DOI's Bureau of Indian Affairs Branch of Tribal Climate Resilience.
- The EPA's Environmental Justice Collaborative Problem Solving (EJCPS) Program selected the community non-profit Reflo Inc. to receive $500,000.
- The EPA's Environmental Justice Government-to-Government (EJG2G) program selected the City of Milwaukee Environmental Collaboration Office to receive $1 million.
- The EPA selected the Penta Wood Products Superfund site to receive $1.3 million in cleanup funding.

CLIMATE-SMART AGRICULTURE:

- The USDA's Rural Energy for America Program (REAP) awarded nearly $5 million to more than 40 Wisconsin farmers, ranchers, and businesses.
- The USDA's 'From Learning to Leading: Cultivating the Next Generation of Diverse Food and Agriculture Professionals Program' awarded the College Of Menominee Nation $9 million.
- Two projects in Wisconsin were selected to receive funding from the USDA's Increasing Land, Capital, and Market Access Program.
